Mathieu Mercier: diamants 2015 at Skylight at Moynihan Station | Denis Gardarin Gallery

Untitled (Diamant), 2015

Denis Gardarin Gallery presents a solo exhibition of French conceptual artist Mathieu Mercier, featuring his iconic diamant series of seven new paintings that have never before been exhibited. Building on the Gallery's practice of mounting migrating programs in non-traditional venues, this exhibition will explore Mercier's work within the context of the historic James A. Farley Post Office in New York City. Each of the seven works will be shown in consecutive rooms on the fourth floor of the national landmark known today as Skylight at Moynihan Station and future home of New York Fashion Week.

LOCATION: Skylight at Moynihan Station

DATES: May 13 - 16, 2015
